Notes for Benjamin "the Loyalist" Bradford:

Full name: Benjamin Franklin Bradford.

The Penobscot Loyalists at Passamaquoddy: 10 June 1784 shows the following for Bradford: Benjamin is listed under men, Martha, listed under women, Anna, listed under children 10 and above, Daniel, Mary, and Benjamin, listed under children under 10. Around the time of 1784, the family move into Canada as British Loyalist.

Benjamin established the ferry from Oak Point to the eastern shore, of Waweig/St Croix River known for many years as Bradford's ferry; and his grave is at Oak Point, near the old ferry landing place.

In 1791, Benjamin Bradford, Castine, Maine, was one of the group of over 400 known as the Penobscot Association who came to St. Andrews, N.B. Many of these Loyalists received two land grants. He received one (in what is now the Town of St. Andrews) and approximately 100 acres in Bayside. The front of his lot and the adjoining lot, as well, as some at the mouth of the Waweig River was reserved for fortification. He also acquired land at Oak Point (Todd's Point) where he operated a farm and also a ferry from the Point to Bayside, N.B. known for many years as Bradford's Ferry. The ferry landing was located on the North side of the Point and may have been in the cove facing Devil's Head in Maine. (Source: "At The Crossroads: Stories from Todd's Point on the Historic St. Croix", written by Doug Dougherty, 2005)

Benjamin Bradford, the ninth child of Joshua and Hannah, was born at Kingston, May 28th, 1753, and lived for a tie in Maine and from there removed to the Province of New Brunswick. He married Martha in Bristol Maine, and lived on what is now known as the Connors Farm at Oak Point, New Brunswick, where both he and his wife are now buried. Their children, of whom there were eight (of the fifth generation, counting Gov. Bradford's sons, William and Joseph, as the first) were: Daniel, who lived in Calais, Maine; Benjamin (of whom the writer is a grandson) and Joshua, who lived at the Bayside (St. Croix parish); Huldah, who married Mr. Byrnes, and Polly, who married Mr. Sibly, lived at Robbinston, Maine; Martha, who married Mr. Hopps, Rachel, who married Mr. Smith and Annie, who married Mr. Eary, lived on farms located on Oak Point and the Ledge Road. All of these have passed away. Of their children there are now living: Mrs. Deacon Kelley, J. R. Bradford, F. W. Bradford, Mrs. Deacon Rideout, Elias Smith, Cornelius Hopps, John Byrnes, Robert Eary, and a number of others; besides these, there were John Bradford, Mrs. Joseph J. Doten, Mrs.

Generation 5 (con't)

William C. Rideout, Mrs. George Murphy, Capt. Benjamin Bradford, and Percival Byrnes, who are not living but nearly all the children of the last mentioned group are living and settled on or near where their parents once lived. All of these are heirs by direct lineal descent, of the estate of Colonel William Bradford of Mayflower fame, which is said to amount of $100,000,000. (Source: The Heirs of Col. William Bradford - St. Croix Courier Newspaper, Thursday, April 12, 1883)

Near the age of 70, Benjamin married Mrs. Elizabeth "Betsy" (Hitchings) Joyce. Betsy was a widow and had nine children from her marriage to John Joyce Sr.

Notes for Elizabeth "Betsy" Hitchings:

married her second husband, Benjamin Bradford, late in life (no children from union)

Notes for Martha "Mitea" Studley:

Benjamin Bradford the Loyalist died in 1832 at the age of 79 and is buried at Todd's Point. Martha or Elizabeth died on June 23 1854 at the age of 83(?). She is buried in the cemetery behind the Ledge United Church. (Source: "At The Crossroads: Stories from Todd's Point on the Historic St. Croix", written by Doug Dougherty, 2005) ... is this Benjamin's wife? Also buried in the plot is daughter, Rachel. According to some sources, Mitea was 83 years when she died which would be in conflict of her date of birth in 1754, where she would be 99 year old. Another source suggest that Mitea is buried with her husband at Todd's Point.

Notes for Benjamin "the Loyalist" Bradford:

Full name: Benjamin Franklin Bradford.

The Penobscot Loyalists at Passamaquoddy: 10 June 1784 shows the following for Bradford: Benjamin is listed under men, Martha, listed under women, Anna, listed under children 10 and above, Daniel, Mary, and Benjamin, listed under children under10. Around the time of 1784, the family move into Canada as British Loyalist.

Benjamin established the ferry from Oak Point to the eastern shore, of Waweig/St Croix River known for many years as Bradford's ferry; and his grave is at Oak Point, near the old ferry landing place.

*In 1791, Benjamin Bradford, Castine, Maine, was one of the group of over 400 known as the Penobscot Association who came to St. Andrews, N.B. Many of these Loyalists received two land grants. He received one (in what is now the Town of St. Andrews) and approximately 100 acres in Bayside. The front of his lot and the adjoining lot, as well, as some at the mouth of the Waweig River was reserved for fortification. He also acquired land at Oak Point (Todd's Point) where he operated a farm and also a ferry from the Point to Bayside, N.B. known for many years as Bradford's Ferry. The ferry landing was located on the North side of the Point and may have been in the cove facing Devil's Head in Maine. ## Generation 5 (con't)

Benjamin Bradford, the ninth child of Joshua and Hannah, was born at Kingston, May 28th, 1753, and lived for a tie in Maine and from there removed to the Province of New Brunswick. He married Martha in Bristol Maine, and lived on what is now known as the Connors Farm at Oak Point, New Brunswick, where both he and his wife are now buried. Their children, of whom there were eight (of the fifth generation, counting Gov. Bradford's sons, William and Joseph, as the first) were: Daniel, who lived in Calais, Maine; Benjamin (of whom the writer is a grandson) and Joshua, who lived at the Bayside (St. Croix parish); Huldah, who married Mr. Byrnes, and Polly, who married Mr. Sibly, lived at Robbinston, Maine; Martha, who married Mr. Hopps, Rachel, who married Mr. Smith and Annie, who married Mr. Eary, lived on farms located on Oak Point and the Ledge Road. All of these have passed away. Of their children there are now living: Mrs. Deacon Kelley, J. R. Bradford, F. W. Bradford, Mrs. Deacon Rideout, Elias Smith, Cornelius Hopps, John Byrnes, Robert Eary, and a number of others; besides these, there were John Bradford, Mrs. Joseph J. Doten, Mrs. William C. Rideout, Mrs. George Murphy, Capt. Benjamin Bradford, and Percival Byrnes, who are not living but nearly all the children of the last mentioned group are living and settled on or near where their parents once lived. All of these are heirs by direct lineal descent, of the estate of Colonel William Bradford of Mayflower fame, which is said to amount of $100,000,000. (Source: The Heirs of Col. William Bradford - St. Croix Courier Newspaper, Thursday, April 12, 1883)

Near the age of 70, Benjamin married Mrs. Elizabeth "Betsy" (Hitchings) Joyce. Betsy was a widow and had nine children from her marriage to John Joyce Sr.

Notes for Elizabeth "Betsy" Hitchings:

married her second husband, Benjamin Bradford, late in life (no children from union)

Notes for Martha "Mitea" Studley:

Benjamin Bradford the Loyalist died in 1832 at the age of 79 and is buried at Todd's Point. Martha or Elizabeth died on June 23 1854 at the age of 83(?). She is buried in the cemetery behind the Ledge United Church. (Source: "At The Crossroads: Stories from Todd's Point on the Historic St. Croix", written by Doug Dougherty, 2005) ... is this Benjamin's wife? Also buried in the plot is daughter, Rachel. According to some sources, Mitea was 83 years when she died which would be in conflict of her date of birth in 1754, where she would be 99 year old. Another source suggest that Mitea is buried with her husband at Todd's Point.

Martin Byrne Bradford, or "Byrne", passed away in 1917 while three of his sons were serving overseas in the First World War. Cause of death is not known.*

Notes for Lola Jane Barney:

BRADFORD, LOLA JANE (BARNEY) - Woman Who Packed First Connors Bros. Sardines Was Mother of 18 - Mr. Lola Jane Bradford, aged 83 years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Chipman H. Brewer Sunday evening, May 22, 1949, following an illness of several months. She had been an outstanding figure in community life and church work during her years of residence here in Blacks Harbour. Mrs. Bradford learned to pack fish in Eastport and upon moving to Blacks Harbour in 1895 she packed the first sardines for Connors Brothers and instructed others. She also packed the first sardines shown by Connors Brothers at the Saint John Exhibition for which the firm won a medal. Formerly Lola Barney, she was born in Saco, Maine, May 6, 1866. Shortly after moving to Eastport in 1882, she married Martin B. Bradford. Six of her children were born in Eastport. In 1892 the family moved to Beaver Harbour where two more children were born. In April 1895, they moved to Blacks Harbour where ten children were born making 18 in all. There are eleven children now living: Victor H. Bradford, Donald Bradford, Mrs. Chipman H. Brewer, Mrs. Warren Justason, Mrs. John Justason and Mrs. Wesley Leavitt Sr. all of Blacks Harbour, and Mrs. Wendall Estabrooks of Marysville; Winfield, Miles and Theodore, of Pennfield, and Harold Bradford of Oak Bay. She is also survived by 82 living grandchildren and 83 living great-grandchildren. Mrs. Bradford has four brothers who served in the American Civil War, four sons in the First World War, one killed in active service and one who died of a wound after returning home. In the Second World War, she had one son in active service, also eleven grandsons and one granddaughter. Mrs. Bradford has been a member of the Baptist Church longer than anyone else in the village, having first joined as a girl in Maine. She was a staunch member of Calvary United Baptist Church. Her husband, Martin Bradford, predeceased her February 24, 1917. The funeral was held at Calvary United Baptist Church at 2:30 Wednesday, Rev. William Randall conducting the service assisted by H. S. Wilson of the Reformed Baptist Church.

*According to the death certificate of Mrs. Lola J. (Barney) Bradford, she died on 22 May 1949 at Blacks Harbour, at the age of 83 years. Notes for Lola Jane Barney:

BRADFORD, LOLA JANE (BARNEY) - Woman Who Packed First Connors Bros. Sardines Was Mother of 18 - Mr. Lola Jane Bradford, aged 83 years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Chipman H. Brewer Sunday evening, May 22, 1949, following an illness of several months. She had been an outstanding figure in community life and church work during her years of residence here in Blacks Harbour. Mrs. Bradford learned to pack fish in Eastport and upon moving to Blacks Harbour in 1895 she packed the first sardines for Connors Brothers and instructed others. She also packed the first sardines shown by Connors Brothers at the Saint John Exhibition for which the firm won a medal. Formerly Lola Barney, she was born in Saco, Maine, May 6, 1866. Shortly after moving to Eastport in 1882, she married Martin B. Bradford. Six of her children were born in Eastport. In 1892 the family moved to Beaver Harbour where two more children were born. In April 1895, they moved to Blacks Harbour where ten children were born making 18 in all. There are eleven children now living: Victor H. Bradford, Donald Bradford, Mrs. Chipman H. Brewer, Mrs. Warren Justason, Mrs. John Justason and Mrs. Wesley Leavitt Sr. all of Blacks Harbour, and Mrs. Wendall Estabrooks of Marysville; Winfield, Miles and Theodore, of Pennfield, and Harold Bradford of Oak Bay. She is also survived by 82 living grandchildren and 83 living great-grandchildren. Mrs. Bradford has four brothers who served in the American Civil War, four sons in the First World War, one killed in active service and one who died of a wound after returning home. In the Second World War, she had one son in active service, also eleven grandsons and one granddaughter. Mrs. Bradford has been a member of the Baptist Church longer than anyone else in the village, having first joined as a girl in Maine. She was a staunch member of Calvary United Baptist Church. Her husband, Martin Bradford, predeceased her February 24, 1917. The funeral was held at Calvary United Baptist Church at 2:30 Wednesday, Rev. William Randall conducting the service assisted by H. S. Wilson of the Reformed Baptist Church.

  - v. HOWARD CHARLES BRADFORD was born on 18 Jan 1916 in Blacks Harbour, Charlotte Co., New Brunswick. He died on 14 Mar 1934 in St. Stephen, Charlotte Co., New Brunswick.

Notes for Howard Charles Bradford:

Howard Charles Bradford is the son of Victor Bradford Sr. and Linnie E. Towers. He was born on 18 January 1916 in Blacks Harbour. Died, at the age of 18, at the Chipman Memorial Hospital in St. Stephen on 14 March 1934 with the cause of death being a result of an appendicitis operation on 09 March 1934. He was buried on 17 March 1934 (Blacks Harbour Community Cemetery).

BRADFORD, HOWARD CHARLES - 1916-1934 - The community was greatly shocked and grieved to learn of the death on Tuesday, March 13th 1934, of Howard Charles Bradford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor H. Bradford Sr., at St. Stephen, at the age of 18 years. He had been ill only since the previous Thursday, when an emergency operation was performed. The young man was a pupil in grade eleven of the high school, and was to graduate at the end of June. He had a disposition that made him popular with his fellow students, and was known and liked by all in the community for his bright and friendly way. He was an excellent student and keenly interested in physical training and sport. His chief interest was nature, and he was a very skilful woodsman. He held the office of junior forest warden for this district, and he had written some short stories and poems about nature and his friends the birds. He was reader of the Trail Rangers, and he was also a teacher of the intermediate boys' class of the Sunday school of the Blacks Harbour Baptist Church. The sympathy of the whole community is extended to the bereaved parents and family. He is survived by his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Victor H. Bradford Sr., two sisters, Mrs. D. J. Springer and Miss Vivian Bradford, and four brothers, Victor Jr., Edmund, Eric and Hazen. The remains were brought to Blacks Harbour by boat on Wednesday, and the funeral was held on Friday at 2 o'clock from the home of his parents, with a service in the Blacks Harbour Baptist Church, conducted by Rev. Heaton Flanagan, pastor, assisted by Fred Anderson, Lic. The church was filled to capacity, all standing room being taken, and followed the remains to their last resting place. Mr. Flanagan spoke touchingly of the young boy's life, and Mr. Anderson offered prayer. The boy's favourite hymn was sung, "In the Sweet Bye-and-Bye." Other hymns were "Some Time We'll Understand" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus", and at the grave "Will the Circle Be Unbroken". The pall-bearers were five uncles of the young man: Donald Bradford, Myles Bradford, W. W. Bradford, Theodore Bradford and Ernest Bradford, and his best chum, Leonard Theriault. Interment was in the Blacks Harbour Baptist Cemetery. There was a great profusion of lovely flowers, including wreaths, sprays and individual bouquets from Connors Bros. Limited office and store staffs, from his school mates and the Sunday School.

Howard Charles Bradford is the son of Victor Bradford Sr. and Linnie E. Towers. He was born on 18 January 1916 in Blacks Harbour. Died, at the age of 18, at the Chipman Memorial Hospital in St. Stephen on 14 March 1934 with the cause of death being a result of an appendicitis operation on 09 March 1934. He was buried on 17 March 1934 (Blacks Harbour Community Cemetery).

BRADFORD, HOWARD CHARLES - 1916-1934 - The community was greatly shocked and grieved to learn of the death on Tuesday, March 13th 1934, of Howard Charles Bradford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor H. Bradford Sr., at St. Stephen, at the age of 18 years. He had been ill only since the previous Thursday, when an emergency operation was performed. The young man was a pupil in grade eleven of the high school, and was to graduate at the end of June. He had a disposition that made him popular with his fellow students, and was known and liked by all in the community for his bright and friendly way. He was an excellent student and keenly interested in physical training and sport. His chief interest was nature, and he was a very skilful woodsman. He held the office of junior forest warden for this district, and he had written some short stories and poems about nature and his friends the birds. He was reader of the Trail Rangers, and he was also a teacher of the intermediate boys' class of the Sunday school of the Blacks Harbour Baptist Church. The sympathy of the whole community is extended to the bereaved parents and family. He is survived by his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Victor H. Bradford Sr., two sisters, Mrs. D. J. Springer and Miss Vivian Bradford, and four brothers, Victor Jr., Edmund, Eric and Hazen. The remains were brought to Blacks Harbour

*Walter Spear of Blacks Harbour, Bill Thornhill of New Minus NS and Winnie Roy of Eastern Passage NS and by several nieces, nephews and cousins. Paul was predeceased by one brother Eugene and by one sister Ruth Carder. Paul served 31 years in the Royal Canadian Navy (East Coast). He was a member of the Royal Canadian Legion Branch # 40, St. George where he was currant Chaplain and Service Officer and Past Membership Chairperson. He was also a Deacon at the Pennfield United Baptist Church, Pennfield NB. His greatest love was the camp he shared with his wife and the time they spent there, watching sunrises and sunsets at Seeley's Cove NB. He also had a workshop there and he spent many hours making woodcrafts for family and friends. Paul had a great love for literature, history and all types of music. He liked dabbling with his guitars and the keyboard of a piano. He was very gifted as a writer, being able to sit down and create poetry at anytime on any subject. He wrote hundreds of poems including a yearly poem for the Remembrance Day services at the St. George Legion. He also wrote several hymns. Paul loved people and enjoyed visiting with people, especially at Brunswick Court where he and Lynda used to live and with the people at the Legion where he was very active until recent months. He called the Bingo on Tuesday Evenings and enjoyed going around the room welcoming everyone and liked to share a joke with all he came in contact with. He loved playing golf. He enjoyed going out with his brother-in-law, Vernon Spear and good friend Bill Walsh and "hitting little white balls with sticks." They never kept score but certainly enjoyed the social aspect of this routine. Paul has been battling cancer since the summer of 2009. He had the ability of brightening a room where ever he went including the "Daffodil Room and Chemo Room" at the Saint John Regional Hospital. He always had a positive attitude and could bring cheer to both patients and staff no matter how badly he really felt. He will also be missed by the staff at Extra Mural in St. George. Through his love of the Lord and people, Paul has inspired so many and will be sadly missed in the community. Resting at the Pennfield United Baptist Church, Pennfield NB from where the service will be held on Tuesday at 2 pm with Rev. Reg Ward officiating. Visiting at the church will take place on Monday from 2-4 and 7-9 pm. A Royal Canadian Legion Tribute service will take place at the church on Monday at 6:45pm. In keeping with the families wish, no flowers please. In Paul's memory, donations to Bobby's Hospice or to a charity of the donor's choice would be appreciated by the family. Notes for Elizabeth Katherine "Betty" Barter:

BRADFORD, ELIZABETH "BETTY" KATHERINE (BARTER) - 1910-1990 - Many relatives and friends were saddened to learn of the death of "Betty" Elizabeth Katherine Bradford, wife of Edmund W. Bradford of Pennfield, death occurred on June 15, 1990 at the Saint John Regional Hospital where she was a patient for a few hours, following a lengthy illness at home. Betty, as she was generally known, was born at Penniac, York County, NB, on June 13, 1910, and was a daughter of the late John and Annie (Brewer) Barter. Receiving her early education at Penniac, she later attended Business College in Fredericton, and where she also studied music, both voice and instrumental. On June 9, 1934, she was united in marriage with Edmund W. Bradford of Blacks Harbour, where they resided until moving to their new home in Pennfield in 1958. When first coming to this area she was employed as secretary in the first local Bank of Nova Scotia, and later with Connors Bros. Ltd in their first office. As a member of Calvary United Baptist Church, Betty took an active interest in many phases of the life of the church. She service as the organist and choir director for many years. As a teacher in the Sunday School, a member of the Women's Missionary Society. She organized a junior choir within the church, during this period the young choir members presented a musical concert, the proceeds from this were used to purchase bells for the church belfry, given to the church as a memorial to Mrs. Bradford's young son Brian who died a short time previously. Extremely talented in the field of music, Betty was a well-known music teacher in voice, piano, organ and violin, having many music pupils from the area. She taught music in the Blacks Harbour school. She composed a number of hymns complete with words and music, which were compiled in a book-form kept for her pleasure and that of friends. Ever interested in the community where she lived, with her husband's help, they did a great deal of volunteer work in the local cemetery. And she was a member of the organizing committee set up to establish the Pennfield Community Cemetery. Highly respected and esteemed Betty will be greatly missed by her many friends.

Notes for Norman Lester Bradford:

BRADFORD, NORMAN LESTER - 1921-1997 - With his family at his side, Norman Bradford passed way October 26, 1997 at the Saint John Regional Hospital at the age of 76. Born on June 28, 1921 in St. Stephen, he was the son of the late Harold and Margaret (Davies) Bradford. One sister, Kay and an infant brother Harold predeceased him. He lived all his life at the Bradford Homestead on Oak Haven Road. He is survived by his wife Arlene; five sons, Ronnie, Raymond, and Brian (Nancy) all of Alberta; Bruce (Karen), Danny (Danielle) of Oak Haven; two daughter, Bonnie (Mike) Cleghorn, of Oak Bay, and Pam (Doug) Haley of Burnt Hill; 19 grandchildren, two brothers, Dick, Oak Bay and Don, Oak Haven, three sisters, Nancy (Harold) Floyd; Helen Meighan both of Saint John, NB and Marge Dickinson, Peabody, Mass. Norman enlisted in the Canadian Army in 1941 and served in the United Kingdom, Central Mediterranean areas and Continental Europe. He was wounded while doing battle. He was discharged in 1945 receiving the medals, 1939-45 Star, Italy Star, France-Germany Star, Defense Medal, Canadian Volunteer Service Medal & Clasp. On June 30, 1950, Norman was united in marriage to Arlene Bartlett. Together they built a family of seven and enjoyed life to the fullest. Norman worked outdoors all his life supporting his family the best he could. Although he was wounded in the army, he never let his family go without. Norman had a charisma about him that made his family and grandchildren flock around him. He was always cheerful and made everyone laugh. Norman loved the outdoors, going fishing, hunting and boating. He was an outdoors person, and always planted a garden with his wife. He loved to go on trips and often did with his family. He enjoyed taking long drives in one of his many vans with his wife. Always kind and helpful, Norman will deeply be remembered for always being there and having a door that was always opened to anyone in need. The funeral service was conducted at the S.O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home on October 29, 1997, with Rev. Mary-Beth Moriarity officiating. The soloist, Linda Bartlett sang one of his favorite hymns The Old Rugged Cross selected by the family. A very touching song Tears in heaven was played in memory of Norman, selected by his family. A poem written by Kathy Bradford and read by Jessica Cleghorn, granddaughters of Norman was read at the closing of the service. Nephew Doug Bartlett rendered the eulogy. Pallbearers were sons, Brian, Bruce and Danny, sons in law, Mike and Doug and nephew Tim. Members of the Royal Canadian Branch No. 9 attended the service. He was laid to rest at the Bradford plot in the Oak Bay Cemetery. Graveside service was officiated by Rev. Mary Beth Moriarity. Member of the Legion formed a guard of honor at the graveside. The family will deeply miss their father, grandfather, husband and friend, but will forever have the memories of his loving smile and the great times they had together. At the closing of the graveside service, the family selected this poem read by Norman's daughter, Pam.

Notes for Floyd Ruben Carson:

CARSON, FLOYD R. - 1919-2010 - Floyd R. Carson, 91, passed away peacefully Sunday morning, October 17, 2010, at a Presque Isle health care facility. He was born September 8, 1919, in Mars Hill, son of Wardlow and Elva (Kilcollins) Carson. Dad's family was from Hawkshaw, New Brunswick, and shortly after his birth his parents moved back to the family homestead there. His father was the postmaster and a farmer, and had a woods operation. Dad left school at age 12 to work in the woods during the depression years. Growing up in his environment made him an expert in many trades such as mechanics, plumbing and electricity. Most of all it made him a great patriot and a hard worker. On his own, he developed math, vocabulary and penmanship skills that were amazing. In 1940, he enlisted in the Canadian Army and spent more than four years in Europe, fighting in World War II. After the war ended he returned home. On Nov. 9, 1946, he married his pre-war sweetheart, Cavell Bradford, of Blacks Harbor, New Brunswick. While he was overseas, Cavell had married a British airman and they had a son named Glenn. Her husband was killed in the war in 1945. They were married on Glenn's third birthday. In 1948, they moved to Presque Isle. He went to work for Cole's Express that year and it was the only job he ever had. He was a loyal employee for 34 years, retiring in 1982 when the employees went on strike. During many wonderful retirement years, Dad enjoyed gardening, camp at Squa Pan Lake, fishing, hunting and working hard for the Republican Party. Dad was extremely generous to worthy causes, and had a great compassion for people in need. He never passed a hitchhiker or failed to invite one passing by to come into his home for a lunch. He was predeceased by his wife, Cavell, Jan. 12, 2003. They were married for 56 years. His children are thankful for the home and stability that he provided. He is survived by his daughter, Candace Quartarone and husband, David, of Fort Fairfield; three sons, Randolph of West Baldwin, Dean of Fort Fairfield, and Glenn and his wife, Paula, of Presque Isle; six grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren; and one great-grandchild, Madyson. She was very special; Dad loved to see her. He is also survived by a sister, Hilda and husband, Dalton Stairs; and brothers, Paul and wife, Ida, Roy and wife, Madeline, Ralph and wife, Marguerite, and Glen and wife, Joan, all of Canada. He was predeceased by his parents; and brothers, Vaughn and Donald. For the last six years Dad was a resident of Presque Isle Rehabilitation and Nursing Center. The family thanks the wonderful staff there for their kind and loving care. We are so grateful. Dad never had a complaint. There will be no calling hours. A private family funeral service will be held noon Saturday, Oct. 23, at Duncan-Graves Funeral Home, 30 Church St., Presque Isle, with the Rev. Wade Bradford officiating. Interment will be at Fairmount Cemetery. After the interment, refreshments will be served in the reception area at the funeral home. A donation to the charity of one's choice would be appreciated by Dad.

Walter Spear of Blacks Harbour, Bill Thornhill of New Minus NS and Winnie Roy of Eastern Passage NS and by several nieces, nephews and cousins. Paul was predeceased by one brother Eugene and by one sister Ruth Carder. Paul served 31 years in the Royal Canadian Navy (East Coast). He was a member of the Royal Canadian Legion Branch # 40, St. George where he was currant Chaplain and Service Officer and Past Membership Chairperson. He was also a Deacon at the Pennfield United Baptist Church, Pennfield NB. His greatest love was the camp he shared with his wife and the time they spent there, watching sunrises and sunsets at Seeley's Cove NB. He also had a workshop there and he spent many hours making woodcrafts for family and friends. Paul had a great love for literature, history and all types of music. He liked dabbling with his guitars and the keyboard of a piano. He was very gifted as a writer, being able to sit down and create poetry at anytime on any subject. He wrote hundreds of poems including a yearly poem for the Remembrance Day services at the St. George Legion. He also wrote several hymns. Paul loved people and enjoyed visiting with people, especially at Brunswick Court where he and Lynda used to live and with the people at the Legion where he was very active until recent months. He called the Bingo on Tuesday Evenings and enjoyed going around the room welcoming everyone and liked to share a joke with all he came in contact with. He loved playing golf. He enjoyed going out with his brother-in-law, Vernon Spear and good friend Bill Walsh and "hitting little white balls with sticks." They never kept score but certainly enjoyed the social aspect of this routine. Paul has been battling cancer since the summer of 2009. He had the ability of brightening a room where ever he went including the "Daffodil Room and Chemo Room" at the Saint John Regional Hospital. He always had a positive attitude and could bring cheer to both patients and staff no matter how badly he really felt. He will also be missed by the staff at Extra Mural in St. George. Through his love of the Lord and people, Paul has inspired so many and will be sadly missed in the community. Resting at the Pennfield United Baptist Church, Pennfield NB from where the service will be held on Tuesday at 2 pm with Rev. Reg Ward officiating. Visiting at the church will take place on Monday from 2-4 and 7-9 pm. A Royal Canadian Legion Tribute service will take place at the church on Monday at 6:45pm. In keeping with the families wish, no flowers please. In Paul's memory, donations to Bobby's Hospice or to a charity of the donor's choice would be appreciated by the family. Arrangements in the care of the St. George Funeral Home & Crematorium, 26 Portage Street, St. George, NB.

Notes for Elizabeth Katherine "Betty" Barter:

BRADFORD, ELIZABETH "BETTY" KATHERINE (BARTER) - 1910-1990 - Many relatives and friends were saddened to learn of the death of "Betty" Elizabeth Katherine Bradford, wife of Edmund W. Bradford of Pennfield, death occurred on June 15, 1990 at the Saint John Regional Hospital where she was a patient for a few hours, following a lengthy illness at home. Betty, as she was generally known, was born at Penniac, York County, NB, on June 13, 1910, and was a daughter of the late John and Annie (Brewer) Barter. Receiving her early education at Penniac, she later attended Business College in Fredericton, and where she also studied music, both voice and instrumental. On June 9, 1934, she was united in marriage with Edmund W. Bradford of Blacks Harbour, where they resided until moving to their new home in Pennfield in 1958. When first coming to this area she was employed as secretary in the first local Bank of Nova Scotia, and later with Connors Bros. Ltd in their first office. As a member of Calvary United Baptist Church, Betty took an active interest in many phases of the life of the church. She service as the organist and choir director for many years. As a teacher in the Sunday School, a member of the Women's Missionary Society. She organized a junior choir within the church, during this period the young choir members presented a musical concert, the proceeds from this were used to purchase bells for the church belfry, given to the church as a memorial to Mrs. Bradford's young son Brian who died a short time previously. Extremely talented in the field of music, Betty was a well-known music teacher in voice, piano, organ and violin, having many music pupils from the area. She taught music in the Blacks Harbour school. She composed a number of hymns complete with words and music, which were compiled in a book-form kept for her pleasure and that of friends. Ever interested in the community where she lived, with her husband's help, they did a great deal of volunteer work in the local cemetery. And she was a member of the organizing committee set up to establish the Pennfield Community Cemetery. Highly respected and esteemed Betty will be greatly missed by her many friends.

She was born on 25 Mar 1932 in St. David Ridge, Charlotte Co., New Brunswick. She died on 05 Nov 2007.

Notes for Norman Lester Bradford:

BRADFORD, NORMAN LESTER - 1921-1997 - With his family at his side, Norman Bradford passed way October 26, 1997 at the Saint John Regional Hospital at the age of 76. Born on June 28, 1921 in St. Stephen, he was the son of the late Harold and Margaret (Davies) Bradford. One sister, Kay and an infant brother Harold predeceased him. He lived all his life at the Bradford Homestead on Oak Haven Road. He is survived by his wife Arlene; five sons, Ronnie, Raymond, and Brian (Nancy) all of Alberta; Bruce (Karen), Danny (Danielle) of Oak Haven; two daughter, Bonnie (Mike) Cleghorn, of Oak Bay, and Pam (Doug) Haley of Burnt Hill; 19 grandchildren, two brothers, Dick, Oak Bay and Don, Oak Haven, three sisters, Nancy (Harold) Floyd; Helen Meighan both of Saint John, NB and Marge Dickinson, Peabody, Mass. Norman enlisted in the Canadian Army in 1941 and served in the United Kingdom, Central Mediterranean areas and Continental Europe. He was wounded while doing battle. He was discharged in 1945 receiving the medals, 1939-45 Star, Italy Star, France-Germany Star, Defense Medal, Canadian Volunteer Service Medal & Clasp. On June 30, 1950, Norman was united in marriage to Arlene Bartlett. Together they built a family of seven and enjoyed life to the fullest. Norman worked outdoors all his life supporting his family the best he could. Although he was wounded in the army, he never let his family go without. Norman had a charisma about him that made his family and grandchildren flock around him. He was always cheerful and made everyone laugh. Norman loved the outdoors, going fishing, hunting and boating. He was an outdoors person, and always planted a garden with his wife. He loved to go on trips and often did with his family. He enjoyed taking long drives in one of his many vans with his wife. Always kind and helpful, Norman will deeply be remembered for always being there and having a door that was always opened to anyone in need. The funeral service was conducted at the S.O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home on October 29, 1997, with Rev. Mary-Beth Moriarity officiating. The soloist, Linda Bartlett sang one of his favorite hymns The Old Rugged Cross selected by the family. A very touching song Tears in heaven was played in memory of Norman, selected by his family. A poem written by Kathy Bradford and read by Jessica Cleghorn, granddaughters of Norman was read at the closing of the service. Nephew Doug Bartlett rendered the eulogy. Pallbearers were sons, Brian, Bruce and Danny, sons in law, Mike and Doug and nephew Tim. Members of the Royal Canadian Branch No. 9 attended the service. He was laid to rest at the Bradford plot in the Oak Bay Cemetery. Graveside service was officiated by Rev. Mary Beth Moriarity. Member of the Legion formed a guard of honor at the graveside. The family will deeply miss their father, grandfather, husband and friend, but will forever have the memories of his loving smile and the great times they had together. At the closing of the graveside service, the family selected this poem read by Norman's daughter, Pam.

Notes for Floyd Ruben Carson:

CARSON, FLOYD R. - 1919-2010 - Floyd R. Carson, 91, passed away peacefully Sunday morning, October 17, 2010, at a Presque Isle health care facility. He was born September 8, 1919, in Mars Hill, son of Wardlow and Elva (Kilcollins) Carson. Dad's family was from Hawkshaw, New Brunswick, and shortly after his birth his parents moved back to the family homestead there. His father was the postmaster and a farmer, and had a woods operation. Dad left school at age 12 to work in the woods during the depression years. Growing up in his environment made him an expert in many trades such as mechanics, plumbing and electricity. Most of all it made him a great patriot and a hard worker. On his own, he developed math, vocabulary and penmanship skills that were amazing. In 1940, he enlisted in the Canadian Army and spent more than four years in Europe, fighting in World War II. After the war ended he returned home. On Nov. 9, 1946, he married his pre-war sweetheart, Cavell Bradford, of Blacks Harbor, New Brunswick. While he was overseas, Cavell had married a British airman and they had a son named Glenn. Her husband was killed in the war in 1945. They were married on Glenn's third birthday. In 1948, they moved to Presque Isle. He went to work for Cole's Express that year and it was the only job he ever had. He was a loyal employee for 34 years, retiring in 1982 when the employees went on strike. During many wonderful retirement years, Dad enjoyed gardening, camp at Squa Pan Lake, fishing, hunting and working hard for the Republican Party. Dad was extremely generous to worthy causes, and had a great compassion for people in need. He never passed a hitchhiker or failed to invite one passing by to come into his home for a lunch. He was predeceased by his wife, Cavell, Jan. 12, 2003. They were married for 56 years. His children are thankful for the home and stability that he provided. He is survived by his daughter, Candace Quartarone and husband, David, of Fort Fairfield; three sons, Randolph of West Baldwin, Dean of Fort Fairfield, and Glenn and his wife, Paula, of Presque Isle; six grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren; and one great-grandchild, Madyson. She was very special; Dad loved to see her. He is also survived by a sister, Hilda and husband, Dalton Stairs; and brothers, Paul and wife, Ida, Roy and wife, Madeline, Ralph and wife, Marguerite, and Glen and wife, Joan, all of Canada. He was predeceased by his parents; and brothers, Vaughn and Donald. For the last six years Dad was a resident of Presque Isle Rehabilitation and Nursing Center. The family thanks the wonderful staff there for their kind and loving care. We are so grateful. Dad never had a complaint. There will be no calling hours. A private family funeral service will be held noon Saturday, Oct. 23, at Duncan-Graves Funeral Home, 30 Church St., Presque Isle, with the Rev. Wade Bradford officiating. Interment will be at Fairmount Cemetery. After the interment, refreshments will be served in the reception area at the funeral home. A donation to the charity of one's choice would be appreciated by Dad.
